Central Europe

Central Europe is an important region for India economically. India's total bilateral trade with Central European countries is $46.4 billion. But these figures do not tell the entire story as these are shored up by India's healthy trade relations with only few of these countries. With most others, India's trade is minuscule.

In the last 10 years, India's exports to Central Europe increased to $10.87 billion with a notable growth more than 100 per cent. Following figure shows growing trend of India's exports to Central Europe.

The Czech Republic
